

While we had a number of regular folks out of town this night, it was good to include new families and to try some new things. For some, it was a challenge to get there. It took extra effort, was perhaps later than you might normally get out, but you came and enjoyed your time. Thanks for being there.

By the way, be sure to look through the donut eating contest photos. We have a few folks that you might not want to stand between them and their donuts.

A Family of God

October 25, 2015

We had a great time at Jeff and Lory's home last night. The Fall Family Fun Fest was a wonderful time for all who were involved. From the pumpkin decorating to the hay ride, everyone enjoyed the time together. We enjoyed meeting new people, renewing old friendships, and sitting around the fire making S'mores. How do you get better than that?

Thanks to Jeff, Lory, Cheyenne, Adam, Janet and Tom for all the preparation work that went into this. It takes a lot of effort to pull off and I appreciate what it took to enjoy the time together.

While I am not sure that early Christians enjoyed games like Cheyenne's Redneck Golf when they got together, I do know they came together to share their meals, hopes and dreams. Meeting up around the temple, they took the opportunity to encourage and support each other and to daily share their meals. When people share values, they share time together. It just happens that way
